

BONUS Day February 9, 2010 in Helsinki, Finland

House of the Estates, Snellmaninkatu 9–11

Programme

Morning session

Chairman Markku Mattila, President of the Academy of Finland

08.00 – 09.00

Registration and coffee

09.00 – 09.10

Opening remarks

Markku Mattila, President of the Academy of Finland

09.10 – 09.30

HELCOM Baltic Sea Action Plan (tbc)

Igor Maydanov, Chairman of the Helsinki Commission, Russian Federation

09.30 – 10.30

Expert views:

- Operational Marine Safety Services Now and in the Future Peter Aakjaer Director General, Danmarks Meteorologiske Institut, Denmark.
 - On Interplay between Research and Policy Making: Lessons from ICES and the Common Fisheries Policy Douglas Wilson, Research Director, Aalborg University, Denmark
- What accounts for the eutrophication of the Baltic Sea? An anatomy of policy failure. Markku Ollikainen, Professor of Economy, University of Helsinki, Finland

Workshop with three discussion sessions

Chairman Jüri Elken, chair of BONUS EEIG, Estonian Science Foundation

10.40 – 10.55

Setting up working groups on the following issues:

1. Use research as a base for policy decisions
2. Values of the Baltic Sea – create, manage and measure.
3. Communicating research with the Baltic Sea stakeholders

10.50 – 12.40

Discussion sessions

12.50 – 13.50

Lunch

13.50 – 15.20

Summaries of the working groups

15.20 – 15.50

Conclusions

Formulation of the message to the Baltic Sea Action Summit (www.bsas.fi)
February 10, 2010 in Helsinki

15.50 – 17.00

Cocktails

ACADEMY OF FINLAND
RESEARCH FUNDING AND EXPERTISE