

Matti's hypothesis for 2019:

The discursive shift from ethics to justice sealed the plight of nonhuman animals.

To be studied under the title

CAUSATION, RESPONSIBILITY, AND JUSTICE

The kind of harm that law and morality are designed to prevent

If animals suffer

But for?
Yeah, but, no, but ...

Individual rights and responsibilities

Those who caused are responsible

Capabilities
Positive freedoms

and we know full well who dun-nit

Tradition
Community Solidarity

Identity
Recognition
Care

Social and state responsibilities

Well-being of as many as

Who caused and are responsible?

then what?
Justice?

jurisprudentially

and comparatively
