

REXSAC

ARCTIC RESOURCES & COMMUNITIES

Hannu I. Heikkinen, Prof. in Cultural Anthropology Vesa-Pekka Herva, Prof. in Archaeology Jarkko Saarinen, Prof. in Geography Esa Ruuskanen, Academy researcher in History
 Élise Lépy, Postdoctoral researcher
PhD students: Teresa Komu, Jasmiini Pylkkänen, Alix Vernajot

Point of departure

Main objective

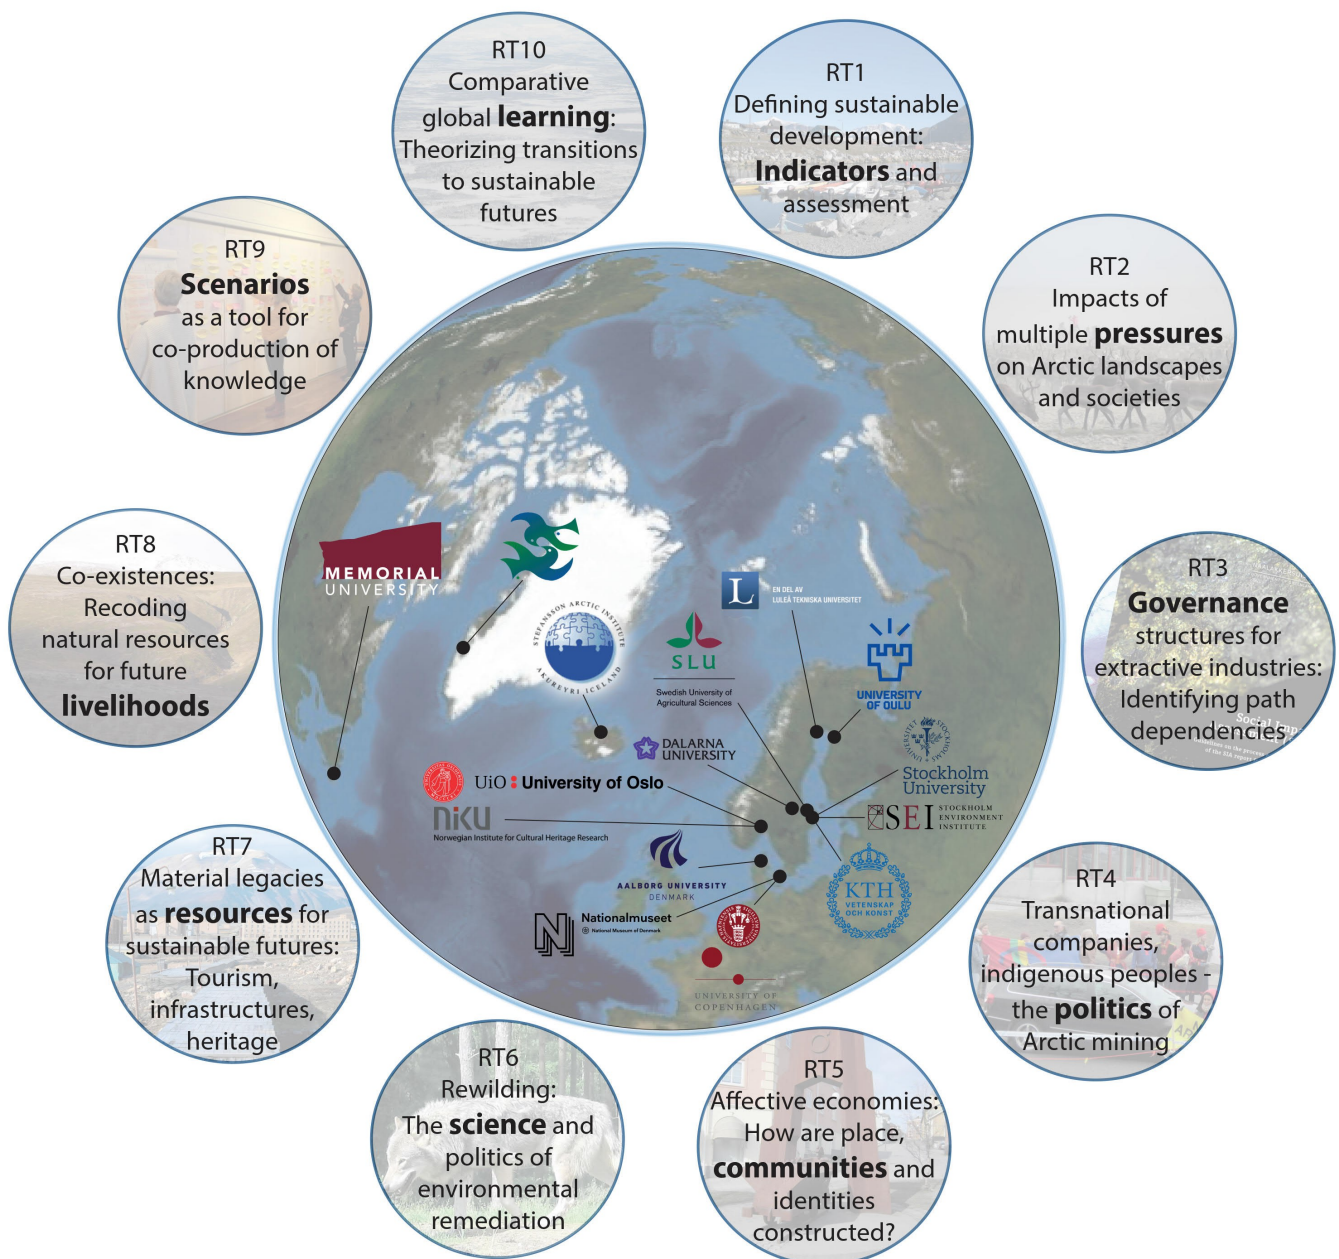

Main deliverable

Global processes of change:
 climate change and extractive industries Study extractive industries in the Arctic as cultural, social, economic and ecological phenomena A set of best practices for sustainable development in Arctic mining regions A total of 75 researchers and 6 salaried PhD students and 7 affiliated Interdisciplinary project

Scientific network

PhD programme

A Nordic Centre of Excellence

2016 - 2020

funded by norden

NordForsk